Union Audio Westend DJ Partnership

Andy Rigby-Jones

British audio design firm, Union Audio, announces a new partnership with leading DJ and PA equipment reseller, Westend DJ, who will stock the company’s growing range of elite audio products. Union Audio is the brainchild of legendary mixer designer, Andy Rigby-Jones, who has collaborated with leading names in the DJ and sound reproduction field, including Richie Hawtin’s Play differently, MasterSounds

Phoca PDF

Audio and TPI, and culminating in the release of a growing portfolio of its own brand products, including the orbit.6 six-channel rack-mounted analogue rotary mixer, compact linear 4-channel elara.4, eq.xfader, phoebe phono preamp and lisann headphone amplifier. Effective immediately, Westend DJ will display, demo and sell Union's orbit and elara mixers and accessories, as well as any future product releases in its London stores and online.

"Westend DJ is the leading DJ equipment reseller in the UK and with two stores in the capital, provides a rare opportunity for customers to get hands on with products. This makes them the perfect partner for Union Audio, as it gives our customers and followers a chance to see and hear the high end, hand-built quality of our growing range of very special products!" says Andy Rigby-Jones.

"We've always been huge fans of Andy's approach to the creation of DJ Mixers, and now Westend DJ is incredibly excited to be partnering with Union Audio. We look forward to offering our customers the opportunity to experience and own bespoke, high-end products that deliver Union Audio's unique signature sound and tactile control over the mix," concludes Gavin James, Director, Westend DJ.

www.unionaudio.co.uk

Phoca PDF