“We are honoured to be appointed as the exclusive distributor for Adamson in India. Adamson’s reputation for engineering integrity and consistent performance aligns strongly with Lewminadio’s approach to the market. Our focus will be on strengthening the brand’s national presence through reliable distribution, structured market development, and responsive local support across key professional audio segments,” said Annu Jamloki, Co-Founder of Lewminadio Technologies.

Lewminadio enters this partnership with a reputation founded on engineering excellence, strong market understanding, and a genuine commitment to customer advancement. The driving forces behind Lewminadio are Sudarshan Srinivasan and Annu Jamloki. Through their shared vision and unwavering commitment, they have built a strong foundation and a top-class team.

Sudarshan, a respected electroacoustic engineer whose practical expertise in system design, alignment, tuning, and deployment has made him one of India's trusted advisors to renowned artists, leading rental companies, consultants, and system integrators. His experience enables Lewminadio to understand client needs and recommend Adamson solutions with accuracy and confidence.

Annu's experience as a System Integrator, OEM, and recent recognition in the prestigious Inavate 40 Under 40, highlights her priceless contribution to the AV industry. She combines exceptional professional drive, a collaborative and giving spirit, and a proven record of making a tangible impact. She also made history as the first woman National Sales Manager at a Fortune 500 company. Her leadership in education, communication, and strategic market development positions Lewminadio as a distributor capable of driving both brand visibility and customer engagement at a national scale.

"Lewminadio brings a strong blend of engineering expertise and deep market understanding. Their team is well-equipped to support existing clients, educate new users, and introduce Adamson technology to a wider range of applications across India. We are excited to see what they can bring to the market," said Lee Stevens, APAC Sales Director, Adamson.
