

AVL Media Group new Wharfedale Pro Distributor for Canada

AVL Media Group, the distributor of professional audio and video equipment, and Wharfedale Pro, the manufacturer of professional audio equipment, have extended their distribution agreement to now include Canada. The change is with immediate effect.

The agreement, which was previously exclusive to the USA, now makes AVL Media Group the authorised distributor for Wharfedale Pro products throughout North America. As a result of this expansion, customers in Canada will now benefit from improved technical support, training, and product availability.

The AVL and Wharfedale Pro teams will showcase their latest offerings at the upcoming InfoComm Show in Orlando, Florida from June 14th to 16th, and welcome current and potential business partners to visit their booth (4888) for more
