Focusrite, Novation, ADAM Audio & Martin Audioat Create-it Studios

WHO: Focusrite Group brands Focusrite, Novation, ADAM Audio and Martin Audio are hosting an exciting and informative audio event on Saturday, July 26, featuring an afternoon of live music, hands-on learning, and immersive sound. Register here.

WHAT: Focusrite Group brands Focusrite, Novation, ADAM Audio and Martin Audio have teamed up to take over the brand-new Create-it Studios, tucked inside the lobby of the Walmart Supercenter in Franklin, Tennessee.

Catch live performances and live sound demos on the main stage throughout the day, featuring the Martin Audio TORUS constant curvature array P.A. system in action.
Meanwhile, all six cutting-edge studios will host sessions covering the following:

- Recording Guitar: Techniques, mic placement, and tone-shaping
- Recording Vocals: Capturing emotion, clarity, and presence
- Podcast Production: From recording to promoting your show
- Dolby Atmos Demos: Step inside the future of immersive audio
- Product Demos: Hands-on with gear from Focusrite, ADAM Audio, and Novation
- Ask Me Anything Zone: Bring your questions, leave inspired
- Refreshment and Networking Reception: relax in front of the main stage with fellow creators, artists, and audio professionals.
