Alex Oana New Apogee Electronics Global Sales Manager

Apogee Electronics announces the appointment of Alex Oana as its new Global Sales Manager, effective immediately. With an illustrious career spanning over 35 years in the audio industry, Oana brings a wealth of diverse experience and expertise to Apogee. His journey has included roles as an award-winning recording engineer/producer, FOH mixer for Pharrell Williams and N*E*R*D, salesperson for Vintage King Audio, Vice President of Slate, where he spearheaded the creation and development of the Raven, and the founder of Audio Test Kitchen - a pioneering web platform offering unbiased comparisons of audio equipment.

Alex Oana commented: "Joining Apogee is an opportunity to contribute to a brand I've long admired as well as relied on as an audio engineer. My sales role is about providing service to our distribution and dealer partners who enable Apogee to continually expand and delight our global customers. The people at Apogee are incredible. And how many pro audio manufacturers have a renowned recording studio and performance venue in the office? I’m so happy to be here!"
