

Audio-Technica Honors Tim Chamberlain

Audio-Technica, an innovator in transducer technology for over 50 years, announces that Tim Chamberlain of Lienau AV has been presented with A-T's prestigious President's Award, for his work representing Audio-Technica professional audio products during the 2020/2021 fiscal year, as well as over the last three decades.

Audio-Technica held an online awards ceremony to honor its manufacturer's representatives on November 1, 2021, on a dedicated Zoom conference. Chamber accepted the President's Award, which recognizes a leading manufacturer's representative for outstanding commitment and dedication. Jeff Beck, Audio-Technica U.S. Territory Manager, presented the award.

Beck commented, "Tim has spent thirty years representing Audio-Technica to the marketplace, and we commend him on the strong sales and high level of service he has offered over his career. A brand like Audio-Technica thrives when talented, passionate professionals apply their skills to promote our products, and Tim has spent several decades doing just that. We thank him again for his service."

www.audio-technica.com