Best Service Desert Winds

This library combines four unique solo wind instruments: Armenian Duduk, Persian Ney, Turkish Ney, and Zourna, capturing the spirit of traditional music from Armenia, Persia, Turkey, and the Middle East. Each instrument breathes history, emotion, and character, inviting you to create your own stories and atmospheres.

Mysterious instruments and atmospheric soundscapes instantly turn any idea into music full of character. Eduardo Tarilonte’s library makes every click an experience - exciting, versatile, and surprising, just like the Orient itself.

The Engine Player makes working a full experience. Everything - volume, articulations, layers, microtuning - is immediately controllable. Layer mixing and real-time control ensure that ideas can be played instantly so you can focus fully on the music.

Overview:

- Four solo wind instruments: Armenian Duduk, Persian Ney, Turkish Ney, Zourna
- Over 2,000 high-quality samples for expressive sound

Phoca PDF

- Up to 6 real legato types per instrument for smooth, emotional performance
- Microtuning module for authentic scales and custom presets
- 21 soundscapes with up to 6 layers for dynamic evolving atmospheres
- Modern interface for maximum clarity and creative inspiration
- All essential performance parameters controllable in real time
- Versatile use across all music styles and productions

Note: All content from Desert Winds is also included in Ancient ERA Persia and requires Engine Player version 1.5 or higher

Free Update: Desert Winds users can find the update in their customer account at the website below.

www.bestservice.com