ETHNO WORLD 7 Complete is the masterpiece of a one-of-a-kind journey through the world of ethnic sound. Created over 25 years in collaboration with visionary producers Marcel Barsotti and Andreas Hofner, this library brings you an incredible collection of instruments and voices from every corner of the globe. From traditional folk textures to modern soundscapes - this is where sampling history comes to life.

ETHNO WORLD 7 Complete includes a total of 382 instruments and voices, spread across more than 1,000 patches. Whether you're working on film scores, TV, or music productions – you'll find exactly what you need for your creative vision.

The instruments cover a wide range of categories:

- Bowed Instruments – From Klezmer violin to Moroccan violin, complete with expressive phrases and melodies.
- Stringed Instruments – Sitar, Oud, Saz, Shamisen, Pipa and many more, reflecting the musical diversity of the world.
- Woodwind & Brass – From the Indian Nagaswaram to the Peruvian pan flute, each instrument has its own unique voice.
- World Percussion & Drums – From Indian tabla to Moroccan darbuka, perfect for deep and dynamic rhythms.
- Gongs, Bells & Metals – Handpan, steel drums, gongs, and other metallic treasures from all over the world.
- Voices – Solo vocals and choirs from across continents, capturing the sound of Africa, Asia, Europe, and America.

Each instrument and voice in ETHNO WORLD 7 Complete has been recorded with extreme care to preserve the natural and emotional essence of traditional music. Thanks to expert playing techniques, micro tunings, and detailed mic setups, every sound feels alive and organic. More than 94 musicians and vocalists from around the world have contributed to this collection.
