In addition to its detailed solo instruments, Celtic ERA 2 also includes authentic phrases as MIDI patterns and a variety of immersive soundscapes that instantly transport you to the world of the Celts. Perfect for quickly creating authentic atmospheres or enriching your compositions with additional textures.

Celtic ERA 2 runs on the powerful Engine Player, giving you full control over your sound. The intuitive interface makes it easy to tweak the sounds and integrate them into your productions. Thanks to advanced lossless compression, the file size is reduced from around 25 GB to just 12 GB – without compromising sound quality. All instruments were recorded using Kahayan U47 microphones & preamps, as well as high-end ribbon microphones – captured up close for maximum control over the sound. The recordings took place at Eldana Studios in Spain, performed by renowned musicians from the Irish music scene, including Martino Vacca (Uilleann Pipes, Irish Flute), Karen Hickey (Fiddle), and Carlos Martín Aires (Guitar, Bouzouki, Banjo). Eduardo Tarilonte himself also contributed performances on concertinas and Celtic harps, while Abraham Cupeiro played the historical Bronze Age instruments.
