DirectOut and Audio & Vision have joined forces to establish an exclusive partnership for distribution in Greece. With this strategic alliance, Audio & Vision will now serve as the official distributor of DirectOut products in Greece, ensuring the delivery of top-notch audio solutions in the region. Audio & Vision has established itself as a reliable provider of premium AV products and services in Greece since the beginning of their activities in 1998.

"We are proud to add DirectOut to our distribution portfolio in Greece," said Mr. Alkis Kotsifas, General Manager of Audio & Vision. "With a 25-year track record in the professional audio, video and lighting solutions sector, we have been committed since the foundation of our company to provide our customers with the highest quality of products and services. We seek the best partners worldwide to achieve our goals, and our new partnership with DirectOut is a testament to our determination."

Audio & Vision acts across various sectors within the AV industry, including Installation, Touring, Broadcast, and Recording. By incorporating DirectOut’s innovative solutions into their offerings, they are equipped to meet the diverse demands of signal distribution, conversion, routing, and processing.
