EVE Audio announces 5-Year Warranty

EVE Audio, the studio monitor manufacturer from Berlin, Germany announces to offer the opportunity to upgrade the standard warranty on all studio monitors to a full 5 years. This offer is part of EVE Audio´s commitment to providing high-quality audio equipment and exceptional customer satisfaction.

Starting in 2025, the warranty can be claimed up to 60 days after purchase. All EVE users who purchased speakers recently in 2024 can register for the extended warranty until the end of February 2025. This extended warranty gives customers greater peace of mind, ensuring that the monitors are fully covered for an extended period, allowing to focus on what truly matters: creating incredible sound.

To upgrade the warranty simply log into “My EVE Area” on EVE Audio´s website and register eligible products to automatically extend the warranty to 5 years. Additionally, customers will benefit from prioritized tech support and have the chance to submit images from studio or setup to qualify as a ”Official BeliEVEr”.
