"At Focusrite, we understand that the creative process can be daunting for musicians. That's why we developed the FAST Bundle, a powerful set of tools that makes mixing and mastering their music a creative process, rather than a technical one. These powerful tools allow musicians to visualise how the plugins affect their sound, making it a great way for newcomers to learn how the plugins function and for pros to get the sound they need quickly. This flash sale now makes the FAST Bundle even more accessible to the broadest range of creatives than ever before." - Nicholas Howlett, Head of Brand & Marketing
