

Soundmit 2026 moves to Cremona

For the first time, Soundmit is moving from Turin to Cremona and will take place inside CremonaMusica, one of Europe's leading trade fairs dedicated to musical instruments. The event will now happen in Cremona, Italy from the 2nd to the 4th of October. More than 20,000 international visitors and 400 exhibitors from 35 countries are expected. This edition marks a historic moment: it is the first official opening of Cremona towards music technology and electronic innovation.

Within CremonaMusica, Soundmit will host a dedicated area focused on:

- Synthesizers
- Modular synths
- Pro audio
- Studio gear
- App & Software
- Music Production
- DJ gear
- Boutique instruments
- Innovative instruments and emerging technologies

As this is the first integration of music technology within CremonaMusica, exhibition spaces are limited. For booking and information, please visit the website below.
