

Hansjörg Prettnner New NTi Audio CEO

NTi Audio welcome Hansjörg Prettnner (left in picture above) as the new CEO of NTi Audio AG and look forward to shaping the company's next phase of growth together with him. With over 30 years of leadership experience across various high-tech industries, Hansjörg Prettnner brings in-depth expertise, a clear strategic vision, and a strong commitment to innovation and sustainable growth. Under his leadership, NTi Audio AG is embarking on an exciting new chapter, with the clear goal of continuing to set benchmarks in acoustic and audio measurement technology and actively shaping the future of the industry together with our global partners.

At the same time, the company would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to Markus Becker (right in picture). After 25 years of outstanding dedication, Markus is retiring. His contributions laid the foundation for NTi Audio's success and will continue to inspire the company. NTi Audio wishes Markus all the best for this new phase in his life and warmly welcome Hansjörg Prettnner to the NTi Audio family.

"I am honored to join NTi Audio AG and lead a company that stands for excellence in acoustic and audio measurement technology. Together with the talented team and our global partners, I look forward to driving innovation, expanding our global presence, and shaping a successful and sustainable future for the company." -
